Who is this Volunteer?

Rich Crosby is originally from Bristol, PA. He worked at Boise Cascade Corporation, where he met his wife Rosi. It was love at first sight for him and they soon married and moved to Delaware to raise their two sons, Adam and Scott. Rich commuted to work in Philadelphia for many years, but when Home Depot opened a store on Naaman’s Road in Delaware, he jumped at the opportunity to be closer to home; ever a dedicated worker, Rich just celebrated his 20th anniversary with Home Depot! A lifelong volunteer, Richie has volunteered for the Siegel JCC, Albert Einstein Academy, Easterseals, and even with JFS delivering meals to homebound seniors for his son’s Bar Mitzvah project. More recently, when Rosi became Director of Development for JFS, she encouraged him to become a JFS Village volunteer and we certainly have been keeping him busy. Planning to retire in a few years, Rich says he intends to increase his volunteer hours and continue making a difference when, where, and as long as he can.

In his spare time, Rich enjoys working out at the gym, riding his bike, visiting Longwood Gardens and Winterthur, traveling, and going to the beach. Always positive, generous, and smiling, Rich can often be found lending a hand at JFS. Thanks Richie for all you do for the JFS Village and our community!
