

1,043

Individuals Served in Office-Based Therapy

140

Individuals and Families Served in Youth Anxiety Programs

2,973

Individuals Served

1,353

Families Served

696

Children Served

RISE

109 Individuals and 61 Refugee Families Served

CARE NAVIGATION

79 Individuals Served

Of older adults reported

- Increased feelings of being supported
- Reduced isolation due to participation in community activities

COMPASS

97 Individuals and 47 Families Served

Of caregivers reported

- Increased ability to manage dementia-related behaviors
- High level of program satisfaction within 12 months of enrollment

B'NAI B'RITH HOUSE

215 Individuals and 46 Families Served

Of older adults reported

- Increased sense of safety and independence
- Feeling they can continue to age in place with the help of care management services

OFFICE-BASED THERAPY

Of individuals reported that therapy has helped them enjoy a better quality of life

Of individuals reported

- Improved ability to successfully manage a mental health or psychiatric condition
- Increased ability to cope with daily stressors

Of individuals have positive feelings about the future

PROMOTING SAFE AND STABLE FAMILIES

200 Individuals and 58 Families Served

Of participants reported

- Increased ability to mobilize supports to address concerns, e.g., housing, food, employment instability
- Reduced family stress